b. Evaluation of intelligence for tactical purposes will remain as at present, each service doing its own.

c. AFSA will undertake to combine intelligence evaluation and AFSA production by forming the panel chiefs of the present [REDACTED] into a new division. G-2, A-2, and ONI personnel will also be assigned to this division which will then become the AFSA intelligence division and will produce finished intelligence reports and production of individual translations will cease. The same technique will also be applied immediately to the [REDACTED] and later to other problems.
